SCHEDULE

S.I. 44 OF 2008

SECURITIES ACT, 2007

(Act No. 8 of 2007)

SECURITIES (PROSPECTUS) REGULATIONS, 2008

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 133 of the Securities Act, the Minister of Finance on the recommendation of the Securities Authority makes the following Regulations:

- | | | |
|--------|--|--------------------------------|
| 1. | These Regulations may be cited as the Securities (Prospectus) Regulations, 2008. | Citation |
| 2. (1) | These Regulations shall not apply to Licensed Funds or Exempt Foreign Funds under the Mutual Fund and Hedge Fund Act. | Application and interpretation |
| (2) | In these Regulations –

“director” includes any person who occupies the position of a director, by whatever name called;

“prospectus” means a prospectus or draft prospectus approved by the Securities Exchange under the Act; and

“securities exchange” means a securities exchange licensed by the Securities Authority;

“the Act” means the Securities Act, 2007. | |
| 3. (1) | A public offer of securities shall not be required to be the subject of a prospectus if any one of the conditions specified in sub-regulation (2) is satisfied in relation to the offer. | Exemptions |
| (2) | The conditions specified, as referred to in sub-regulation (1), are as follows – | |
| (a) | the securities offered are not generally advertised to the public; | |
| (b) | the securities are offered in connection with a bona fide invitation to enter into an underwriting agreement with respect to them; | |

- (c) the securities are offered by the issuer to –
 - (i) members or employees of the issuer;
 - (ii) members of the families of any such members or employees; or
 - (iii) holders of debentures of the issuer;
- (d) the aggregate consideration payable for the securities cannot exceed $25,000; or
- (e) the securities are shares and are offered free of charge to any or all of the holders of shares in the issuer.

(3) If a class of shares has been admitted for dealings on a securities exchange, the securities exchange may authorise the making of an offer without a prospectus, provided that –

- (a) the number or estimated market value of the shares amounts to less than 10% of the number or of the corresponding market value of shares of the same class already admitted for dealings; and
- (b) up-to-date information equivalent to that required by this regulation is available as a result of the requirements of that securities exchange.

Form and content of prospectus

4. (1) A prospectus shall contain sufficient information to enable a prospective investor to make an informed assessment of –

- (a) the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses, purpose or use of proceeds, risk of offering and prospects of the issuer of the securities; and
- (b) the rights attaching to those securities.

(2) Without limiting the generality of sub-regulation (1), a prospectus shall contain, subject to sub-regulations (3), (4) and (5), the information specified in the Schedule.

(3) If, on the occasion of their admission to dealings on a securities exchange, shares are offered on a pre-emptive basis to some or all of the existing shareholders, the securities exchange may authorise the omission from a prospectus of specified information provided that up-to-date information equivalent to that which would otherwise be required by this regulation is available as a result of the requirements of that securities exchange.

- (4) Where a person—
- (a) makes an offer to the public in Seychelles of securities which the person proposes to issue; and
 - (b) has, within the twelve months preceding the date on which the offer is first made, published a full prospectus relating to a different class of securities which the person has issued, or to an earlier issue of the same class of securities, the person may publish, instead of a full prospectus, a prospectus which contains only the differences which have arisen since the publication of that full prospectus and which are likely to influence the value of the securities, provided that the prospectus is accompanied by that previously published full prospectus.

(5) For the purposes of sub-regulation (4), a “full prospectus” is one that contains the information specified in the Schedule (other than information whose omission is authorised by the securities exchange under sub-regulations (3) or (4)).

5. The securities exchange may authorise the omission from a prospectus of information whose inclusion would otherwise be required by these Regulations, if the securities exchange is satisfied that—

Exceptions

- (a) disclosure of that information would be contrary to the public interest;
- (b) the information is of minor importance only, and is not likely to influence assessment of risk and the issuer's assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects; or
- (c) disclosure of that information would be seriously detrimental to the issuer and its omission would not be likely to mislead investors with regard to facts and circumstances necessary for an informed assessment of the securities.

Advertisements
in connection with public offer

6. No advertisement shall be issued to the public in Seychelles announcing a public offer of securities for which a prospectus is required under these Regulations by the person proposing to make the offer unless the advertisement states that –

- (a) the securities exchange has approved the prospectus relating to the public offer; and
- (b) a prospectus is or will be published, as the case may be, and gives an address in Seychelles from which it can be obtained or will be obtainable.

SCHEDULE (regulation 4)
